Washington County Fair

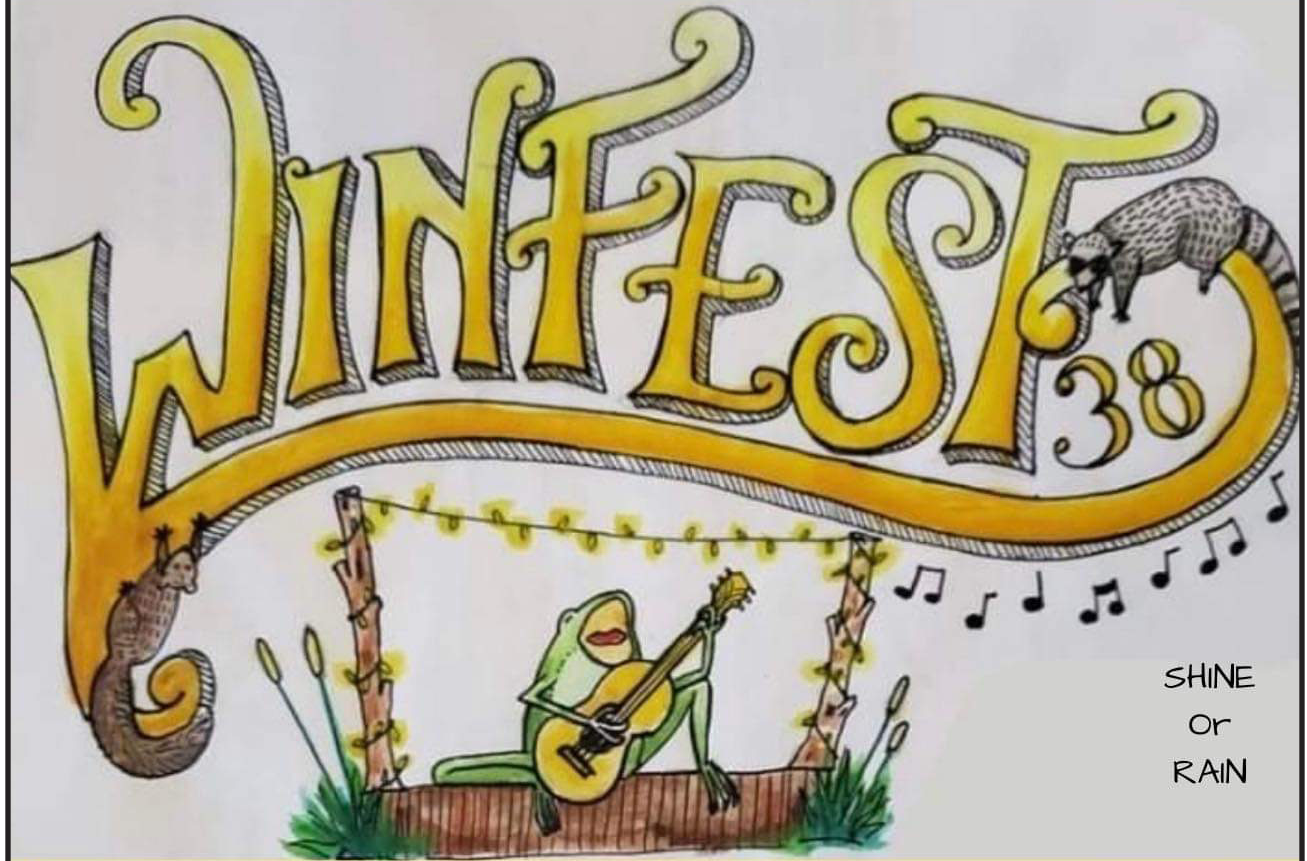

The Washington County Fair will be in full swing this year from August 24 thru August 28, 2021. Enjoy Carnival rides, Bull Buck-out, Livestock shows, and get out of the heat to the air conditioned Thompson Hall and Horticulture buildings. Extension Homemaker's Clubs of Washington County have the Country Store open where you will find many hand made gift items, Baked Goods, Books, and a myriad of things. Don't forget about the livestock barns, Beef, Dairy, Goats and Sheep, Hogs, Poultry, and Rabbits. For a full schedule of events go to www.mywashcofair.com. Hope to see you there,

Calling All Seniors Or Maybe Not So Senior

Beginning Tuesday, August 10th and every Tuesday and Thursday at 10:30 AM in the old School Rock Building come join your friends and neighbors for Coffee, Conversation, maybe some games, maybe some goodies and just some old fashioned camaraderie.

This past year has been very lonely for some who do not have families and companionship. Now that the restrictions have been lifted, even with the Delta variant raising its ugly head, it is time to get together, visit, and get to know each other. Maybe you'll meet some who likes to do the same things you do. There are so many possibilities; others may have the same concerns as you. All you have to do is "put your foot in your hand" and come on up to the old school. The library will be open so you don't have to climb the steps, just come up the ramp and enter through the library. You may even want to stop by the Used Book Shop if you like to read. The books are very nominally price. Hope to see you there.

Fred Joseph Derwin IV

Tuesday, September 14th, 1943 - Sunday, July 11th, 2021

Fred J. Derwin IV, 77, of Winslow passed away peacefully on 7/11/21.

Fred had numerous accomplishments and adventures during his life. He graduated #1 in his class from UofA Fay Jones School of Architecture in 1978 and proceeded to apprentice with Fay Jones where he worked on the original drafts of the Thorncrown Chapel in Eureka Springs. He later started his own business during which he designed and built several custom homes in the greater Fayetteville Area. And his greatest adventure of all was the solo six-month horseback trip through the Sierra Mountains.

He settled in Winslow in 1991 where he became well known as a master woodworker, crafting his signature Arkansas cutting boards, toys and furniture. He took pride in giving back to his community and was known for donating his hand-crafted treasures to multiple charities.

Fred is survived by his three children, Samantha, Rebecca and Joe, Goddaughter Stephanie, their spouses and 11 grandchildren. There will be a Celebration of his life on Sunday, 7/25/21 @ 2:00 p.m. at his beloved home:

Velda's Words

Good afternoon Winslow folk,

It's been a hot few days, but with the humidity fans add an air conditioning feel to the day. I'm very busy involved in writing and interviewing folks for articles in our Western magazine Saddlebags Dispatch. If you haven't seen it check out a copy online at <https://oghmacreative.com/saddlebag-dispatches/> Among other things I have an article in there about lady cowboys in rodeo you might enjoy. It's a fantastic western magazine issued bi-annually. The photography alone is worth taking a look.

Settling down in the shade to read some good western stories can't be beat for enjoyment.

Course, there's always Kindle and it's offering of more western books like The Blue Roan Colt by Dusty Richards and Velda Brotherton. A touching story of a man coming home from the war with only one desire, to own a Blue Roan colt and a ranch. I know you'll enjoy that one.

Also, in case you forgot, #6 of my Poe, mysteries, Quote the Endling, came out a couple of months ago. It was delayed for the year of Covid, but it's out now and you can finish reading the series. If you haven't read any of them, go back and start with #1, The Purloined Skull, and work your way through. Believe it or not there's a reporter who works for a small rural newspaper as the protagonist along with a handsome Cherokee detective who works for the sheriff's department. They live and work in a small town in Arkansas. Wonder where I got ideas for all those stories? Hmmm.

Hope everyone has a good summer. Take it easy and do some reading. It's good for what ails you. Velda Brotherton

Covid Shots in Winslow

On Saturday morning, July 24, Covid-19 shots were given to people who made appointments, as well as to walk-ins at the newly-renovated Winslow City Hall.

The plan was to make Covid-19 shots available right here in town, perhaps making the choice to have the shot a little easier, particularly in light of the false information campaign circulating about the vaccine.

Administering the shots was longtime Winslow resident and nurse Michelle Jarnagan (RN), as well as nurse Lori Mahler (RN), both of whom donated their time to this event. Michelle worked with Lori at Washington Regional for 15 years, and they have been good friends for 25 years.

Michelle worked as a nurse for 34 years, including at the Neonatal ICU for 30 years, and now works at Circle of Life Hospice. Lori has been a nurse for 40 years, also having worked at Neonatal ICU for 30 years, and is currently at the VA Hospital. We were truly fortunate to have two registered nurses of such experience and dedication.

To make an appointment, folks called Pastor Marsha Cooley of Blackburn Community Church, by the Wednesday before.

Working on the planning of this was Mayor Randy Jarnagan (who also helped at the event in City Hall), Marsha Cooley, Ken Stout, Michelle Jarnagan, and Lori Mahler.

Places to Get Your Covid-19 Shots

This is probably only a partial list of places available for the Covid-19 shots.

Even if you're planning to walk-in, it's best to call first to see if there has been any change.

Statehouse Electric Outdoor Concert

Saturday, August 21 @ 6pm

Fayetteville based Statehouse Electric features emotive lead vocals with tight harmonies and heartfelt playing. Their original material synthesizes their disparate influences into a unique sound that is sympathetic to what has come before, but seeks new expression. $10 per person. Food available to buy from Chester Café. Tickets in advance at OzarkFolkways.org

Eco Art Workshop

Saturday, August 28 @ 10am-noon

Let's make eco art together! Participants will learn about eco art and natural pigments by foraging native plants, testing for color, and making eco prints. Students will create their own eco-printed postcards. If the weather is nice, class may be held outdoors. $45 fee includes materials and instruction. Register at OzarkFolkways.org

Support for Ozark Folkways is provided, in part, by the Arkansas Arts Council, an agency of the Arkansas Department of Parks, Heritage, and Tourism, and the National Endowment for the Arts.

The art of living the old ways, in modern times..perfected...

Hello again neighbors,

Seems like we have all been a little head down working, pushing for summer peak..

So here we are full swing... The hard work is paying off, with: gardens producing..Farmers market buzzing with hint of a calm and collective goodness , Businesses striving and swimming pools and water holes are the afternoon delight!! The deer seems to be wandering out of the humid forests to catch an evening breeze on the mountain..Careful out there! Fish~ fish~ fishing is all I know from here until November..lol. The parade of lilies has been colorful , the crepe myrtles, cannas, clematis and rose of sharon have the highlight of many a summer yard.. Simply Smashing displays! The rains and mountain fog have made for spectacular photo memories and a peaceful hopeful feeling of washed clean and then comforted in a soft blanket of HOPE!! Thankful beyond words to live in a such a place of natural beauty and beautiful souled people... Small town community HUGS!! Fish on my friends!

May your kayak veer smooth and not leak, happy paddling!

Old ways...Modern world....Turn back time..and keep Slow Town SLOW FOR ALL OF US....AND OUR FUTURE!

The spirit of love lives on in Winslow..Let's keep it alive!!
Many thanks to ALL of you behind the scenes..Truly...
THANK YOU...

The Spiritual Pen

This is printed by permission of the Jeff Newman taken from his Facebook page sent to me by Wesley Wood.

By Jeff Newton

I asked a friend who has crossed 70 & is heading towards 80 what sort of changes he is feeling in himself? He sent me the following:

- 1 After loving my parents, my siblings, my spouse, my children and my friends, I have now started loving myself.
- 2 I have realized that I am not "Atlas". The world does not rest on my shoulders.
- 3 I have stopped bargaining with vegetable & fruit vendors. A few pennies more is not going to break me, but it might help the poor fellow save for his daughter's school fees.
- 4 I leave my waitress a big tip. The extra money might bring a smile to her face. She is toiling much harder for a living than I am.
- 5 I stopped telling the elderly that they've already told that story many times. The story makes them walk down memory lane & relive their past.
- 6 I have learned not to correct people even when I know they are wrong. The onus of making everyone perfect is not on me. Peace is more precious than perfection.
- 7 I give compliments freely & generously. Compliments are a mood enhancer not only for the recipient, but also for me. And a small tip for the recipient of a compliment, never, NEVER turn it down, just say "Thank You."

8 I have learned not to bother about a crease or a spot on my shirt. Personality speaks louder than appearances.

9 I walk away from people who don't value me. They might not know my worth, but I do.

10 I remain cool when someone plays dirty to outrun me in the rat race. I am not a rat & neither am I in any race.

11 I am learning not to be embarrassed by my emotions. It's my emotions that make me human.

12 I have learned that it's better to drop the ego than to break a relationship. My ego will keep me aloof, whereas with relationships, I will never be alone.

13 I have learned to live each day as if it's the last. After all, it might be the last.

14 I am doing what makes me happy. I am responsible for my happiness, and I owe it to myself. Happiness is a choice. You can be happy at any time, just choose to be!

I decided to share this for all my friends. Why do we have to wait to be 60 or 70 or 80, why can't we practice this at any stage and age?

The Crowning Act

My friends I believe you will find this of real interest. How soon this could take place I don't know. I pray you will be ready for this real deception. look at this on YouTube <https://youtu.be/2-PE13fJMq4> it is a 30 min. film worth investing your time in.

Have a Blessed Sabbath,
Larry

Have I not commanded you?
Be strong and courageous!
Do not be afraid or discouraged,
for the LORD Your God is with you wherever you go.

JOSHUA 1:9

The Bible repeatedly reminds us not to be afraid yet so often we fall into the feelings of fear.

God doesn't just recommend we be strong and courageous; He commands us!

It does not matter what is thrown our way, He is ALWAYS with us wherever we go.
