Here Comes Santa Claus!

It's the Winslow Annual Christmas Parade

December 14th at about 5:00 PM the Parade will be coming through Downtown Winslow.

If you would like to participate in the Parade, polish up your bicycle, rev up your motorized vehicle, brush and saddle your favorite steed, put the finishing touches on the float, or just get out your walking shoes and meet in the Library parking lot at 4:00 PM for lineup.

WCCA invites you to have Hot Dogs and pictures with Santa. This will give you "naughty and nice" Kiddos of all ages to tell Santa what's on your list. City Hall will have refreshments following the parade.

Bernie The Reindeer

SHREYA SHARMA

This is one of the amazing short Christmas stories with morals.

Bernie is a reindeer. He's not popular, that's probably because he was not very special. He couldn't do really anything at all and Santa had a hard time finding a job for him to do. Bernie did not like to be on sight so Santa thought, "Hey, let's put him in the workshop in making toys with the elves." But Bernie's antlers were so big that he kept knocking everything over and the elves were getting very, very angry

So Santa thought, "Hey, let's put him in the kitchen! He can help in making Christmas dinner." But Bernie like to eat. He ate everything he saw. He ate the turkey, he ate the vegetables, and he even ate the table.

But Bernie liked to talk. In fact, he talked all the time. And Santa Claus thought, "Hey wait, we need someone to answer the phones at the North Pole. People are always calling. I think Bernie would be perfect!" And now, Bernie is the new telephone guy.

So, not everyone in life has something special they can do or maybe they just don't see it. If you work really very hard, you will definitely find your special thing. And if you like doing it, you will be very good at it.

The Spiritual Pen

From The Voice Of One On The Top Of Brentwood Mountain!

Revelation 14:6 And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth,

1 Corinthians 13:1 Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not love, I am become [as] sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal. V.2 And though I have [the gift of] prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not love, I am nothing. V.3 And though I bestow all my goods to feed [the poor], and though I give my body to be burned, and have not Love, it profiteth me nothing. V.4 Love suffereth long, [and] is kind; Love envieth not; Love vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up, V. 5 Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil; V.6 Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth; V. 7 Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things. V.8 Love never faileth: but whether [there be] prophecies, they shall fail; whether [there be] tongues, they shall cease; whether [there be] knowledge, it shall vanish away. V.9 For we know in part, and we prophesy in part. V.10 But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away. V.11 When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things. V.12 For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known. V.13 And now abideth faith, hope, Love, these three; but the greatest of these [is] Love.

As we enter this Holiday Season may our lives be seasoned with LOVE.

See you next month,

Larry Smith
